Tribal fight between Borana and Gabra community

hello all, tribal fight broke out in Marabit area, there is great fear and animosity between Borana and Gabra community. im caught in fears and many worries that my family reside in Marsabit town and largely in Gabra residential area. they will need my company for support and encouragement and to be united with them during the hour of need. ? i will travel to Marsabit to give company and support during this period of fear of ongoing fight.

Sorry for these news, ? I understand very well your decision.

? there is tribal fight between Borana and Gabra community. this has caused animosity and conflict. there is insecurity along the main road leading to Marsabit around Turbi and Bubisa. roadblock mounted targeting borana traveling along the main road. therefore Abdi might not travel on 14th to be present for the training date of 16th. we shall monitor calmness and join you for the on job training soonest possible. we shall give update as we monitor how the situation will be developing

Sorry for what is happening. Take care!

? i arrived safely in Marsabit this evening. my family are safe . the tension is still high but no incident was reported today. i looked at the letter you wrote. it is okay to me. i have signed and forwarded to you

We agree very much. Keep care, thanks again fresh tribal clash has erupted again in an area called Jaldesa within Saku constituency. casualties have been reported . there is very high tension in Marsabit town. i have postponed my Safari to Sololo on wait and see the situation.
