

I.Q. 2020

09/04/2020

the story of I. Q. has been previously highlighted also in the database and the issue reached officially to our office true her mother. she is the child in dispute, where her father took the child to another family for support, the mother want her child to stay with her hence bringing difference in opinion. when we intervene they both want the child to stay at Obbitu than to be at their place or at the neighbors. Insene was report on several occasion by Paul as underweight The decision to bring her to Obbitu has also reach Children Officer where he recommended the child to stay in Obbitu till they reach consensus and normalcy return at Home. the picture attached is Insene is now at Obbitu children home.
